LIST OF PREMIUMS FOR POULTRY SHOW

MANY VALUABLE PRIZES OFFERED ROR BEST BIRDS-SHOW TO BE HELD IN STORE ROOM OF ANDER-SON THEATRE BUILDING NOVEMBER 23-24.

The second annual poultry show of the Anderson County Poultry As-sociation will be held in the store com in the Anderson theatre building, November 23-24. These two days are set aside as banner days of the onth of November.

The premium list of the show has been prepared and it is a good one. Many valuable and useful articles have been given as prizes for each and every breed of chicken and fowl known in domestic circles.

Mr. A. M. Campbell, secretary and treasurer of the association has completed the list and offer sthe same for publication. The poultry association is but two years old, and it is one of the strongest of such organizations in the state. There is a great deal of interest in fancy chickens in South Carolina and especially so in Anderson county.

The show was held last year in the building now occupied by the Anderson Intelligencer. This show was a great success and the show for this season promise to eclipse even the last one. Two days are to be held this year for the show.

Following is the premium, list as ssued by Mr. Campbell for the assoclation:

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

At Chicago 14; Wisconsin 13.

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe that Anybody can Apply.

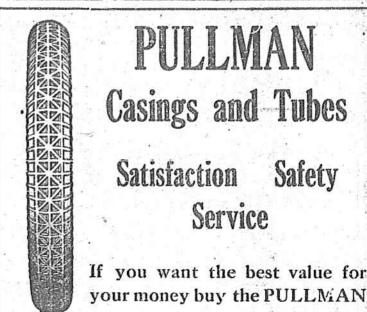

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray heir to its nat-ural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her Lair i, mulifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streakor took on that dull, faded or streak-ed appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by a ring at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur l'air Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair rid is spendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling heir. A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that notody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge of soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two it becomes another application or two, it become beautifully dark, glossy, soft and
